

C. Isaiah McGee

Equal Opportunity Specialist

Isaiah serves as Equal Opportunity Specialist within the Office of Equal Opportunity. His responsibilities include investigating claims of discrimination and harassment under Iowa State's Discrimination and Harassment Policy, investigating matters involving Title IX, facilitating discussions and mediations centering on discrimination or harassment, and providing training to faculty, staff and students on similar issues.

Isaiah McGee is a Ph.D. student in Educational Leadership, Organization, and Policy Studies. His research interests are focused on the impact and praxis of cultural proficiency and responsiveness training in schools. Isaiah previously worked as the Equity Coordinator and Human Resource Specialist for diversity at Des Moines Public Schools and for the Iowa Department of Education as a policy and equity consultant. Isaiah also spent six years as a special education, economics, history and government teacher and assistant football coach. Isaiah holds a B.A. in History and Political Science from Cornell College and a Masters in Teaching from Drake University.
