Jazzmine Brooks (she, her, hers)

Equity and Inclusion Coordinator

Jazzmine serves as the Equity and Inclusion Coordinator within the Office of Equal Opportunity. She joined Iowa State University’s Division of Student Affairs in 2016 previously as the Violence Prevention and Green Dot Coordinator. As the Equity and Inclusion Coordinator, her role will be to manage and support campus needs around accessibility, campus climate response, and various other inclusion initiatives. She has a Master in Public Administration and Bachelor in Journalism - Public Relations and Advertising. Brooks is an advocate for social change, and believes in creating space to discuss and resolve social justice issues.

Brooks is a native to Chicago, Illinois, however she calls Las Vegas, Nevada home. She is a member of the Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Incorporated. She has been afforded opportunities to work in a variety of departments within higher education such as service programs, intercultural affairs, Fraternity and Sorority Life, as well as collaborate with various student organizations and initiatives.