Dear Iowa State University Student:

At Iowa State University, we value your safety and well-being and take very seriously our commitment to being a place where you can succeed and thrive in a community that is free of discrimination, harassment, and intimidation.

As part of this commitment to your safety and well-being, all undergraduate students are required to take an online course. This spring, the university has partnered with EVERFI, whose mission is to help students address critical life skills such as alcohol abuse prevention, sexual assault prevention, and financial literacy in higher education institutions across the country. As a graduate or professional student at Iowa State University, you are required to complete the following from EVERFI:

HavenPlus – Sexual Assault Prevention
This is an on-line program addressing the critical issue facing graduate students regarding sexual assault, relationship violence, stalking, and sexual harassment among students, faculty and staff.
Log-in to Access Plus https://accessplus.iastate.edu/ to take this course.

The HavenPlus program is now available and will be offered in two parts. Part 1 takes 60 minutes or less and can be completed in multiple sessions. After you have completed Part 1, you will be prompted 21 days later to complete Part 2. Part 2 will take 15-20 minutes to complete.

Deadlines for HavenPlus:

HavenPlus Part 1—60 minutes or less
You have between Monday, February 26 and Monday, March 12, 2018 to complete this course.

HavenPlus Part 2—15–20 minutes
21 days (intersession period) after you complete part 1, you will be prompted to complete part 2 and have until Monday, April 9, 2018 to finish the course.

If you are employed at Iowa State University, you must also complete:

Harassment and Prevention Discrimination
An online program that engages employees and raises their awareness about harassment and discrimination by explaining the law, as well as how to recognize harassment and discrimination, and report misconduct to the appropriate person. This will train employees how to identify and report sexual and interpersonal misconduct against students. Log-in to Learn@ISU https://training.ehs.iastate.edu/IowaSU/site/ to take this course.

The Harassment and Prevention Discrimination program is now available with just one part and will take approximately 60 minutes or less and can be completed in multiple sessions.

Deadline for Harassment and Prevention Discrimination:
This course must be completed between Monday, February 26 and Monday, March 12, 2018.

Individuals with disabilities who need an accommodation to participate in the online training program should make their requests directly to the Office of Equal Opportunity at telephone number (515) 294-7612 or by email at eooffice@iastate.edu.

Other Important Information:
- You will need Internet access and audio capabilities.
- To avoid technical issues, please use any major web browser (e.g., Firefox, Internet Explorer, Google Chrome) released within the previous two years.
- You may take the course in multiple sittings.
- The course may include surveys to help personalize your experience and measure participants’ attitudes and behaviors. All survey responses are confidential; the school will only receive information about the participant group as a whole and will never see individual answers.
- Should you experience problems, technical support is available 24/7 and can be accessed from the “Help” link within the course or by visiting support.everfi.com.

Please visit the Office of Equal Opportunity website for more information about Title IX requirements and other Iowa State University resources related to discrimination, harassment, and sexual misconduct prevention. Updates and additional information about this online training will be posted at dso.iastate.edu/titleIX.

Thank you in advance for completing the required training and for doing your part to ensure that Iowa State remains a welcoming and safe environment that is free of harassment and discrimination.

Sincerely,

Martino Harmon, Ph.D.
Senior Vice President for Student Affairs
