

Adrienne Lyles

Associate Director of Equal Opportunity

Adrienne serves as Associate Director of Equal Opportunity within the Office of Equal Opportunity.

Adrienne completed her undergraduate degrees in Philosophy and English at ISU. She earned her M.A. and Ph.D. in Philosophy from the University of Colorado at Boulder; her areas of specialization include feminist philosophy, intersectionality, personal autonomy, and existentialism. Adrienne earned her J.D. from the University of Notre Dame.

Prior to returning to ISU, Adrienne taught Philosophy at the University of San Diego and Saint Mary's College (Indiana), and she served as Director of Justice Education at Saint Mary's. Adrienne was also attorney/owner of a law firm in South Bend, Indiana. Her areas of law practice include land use and housing law, family law, community corrections, and ex-offender reentry.

Adrienne's world view has been profoundly shaped by the experience of raising her identical twin boys, with whom she shares a love of Harry Potter, hiking, and Home Run Inn Pizza. Adrienne spends her free time training for triathlons (run/bike/kayak).